

Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and Sensitization of students and employees to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

The institution is committed towards building an environment of inclusion and respect for religious, socio-economic and other diversities. The institution caters to students from different tribes and socio-cultural communities not only from within the state, but also from neighboring states and countries. Admission is open to foreign nationals and 5% of seats are reserved for SC/OBC, 3% for differently abled students. There is also a mentoring cell in place which facilitates the teachers in guiding the students in every aspect of their holistic development.

The institution also provides scholarship to meritorious students who are from economically weak backgrounds. Scholarship is also given to general/OBC/SC category students who are outstanding in academic performance. Anti-ragging and harassment is strictly prohibited in the campus.

The institution also strives to sensitize its students and employees to the constitutional obligations and values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens. Independence Day and Republic Day are observed and celebrated annually along with the rest of the district. Students and teachers of the college assist the district administration in the decoration of rostrum on red letter days such as Republic Day and Independence Day. Teachers are also annually asked to comper the official ceremonies on such days. The students are encouraged to participate in various activities, competitions, programmes etc which are conducted at institutional, local, regional and national levels to hone the skills of the students and sensitise them to their constitutional rights, duties and obligations. Mock Parliament is conducted annually to familiarize them with Parliamentary proceedings and democratic processes of the country. The institution also contributes to the smooth conduct of democratic processes of the nation and the state by extending services of its teachers and staff as master trainers, presiding officers and polling personnel in the Parliamentary and Assembly elections. Faculty members are also board members and consultants in important academic boards and institutions. Students of the institution also render their services to the Nagaland State Legal Services as Para Legal Volunteers.

Along with the rest of the country, the institution observes all national holidays and commemorates anniversaries of great national leaders. The institution also celebrates cultural day annually.
